

ESSENTIALS OF PENSIONS, TAX AND PAYROLL IN 2016

- 08:15 – 08:45 Registration including a light breakfast
- 08:45– 09:00 Welcome
Paul Dickson –Managing Partner at Armstrong Watson
- 09:00 – 09:20 Setting the scene for the morning
John Stevenson MP
- 09:20 – 10.50 The key facts about automatic enrolment
What can an employer do to comply with their obligations in respect of automatic enrolment? What is a worker? Does it apply to you?
Neil Esslemont, Head of Industry Liaison at The Pensions Regulator
- 10.50 – 11.00 The right questions to ask
Are you an employer struggling to find out which pensions scheme you should choose? Is it enough just to comply; some would say not. How do you balance the books with a decent pension offering? This session will provide some hints and tips on what you should consider
Armstrong Watson Financial Planning
- 11.00 – 11.15 Refreshment break
- 11:15 – 12:00 HMRC update
No event talking about tax would be the same without hearing from HM Revenue & Customs. HMRC will share their thinking on how they are supporting the SME and the new initiatives coming your way
HMRC
- 12:00 – 12:45 Making Tax easier
The latest thinking from our government with regards to tax. Whether you are a farmer, a one man band or a larger enterprise you need to be aware of the upcoming changes
David Gauke MP – Financial Secretary to the Treasury
- 12:45 – 13:00 Payroll update
An update on other legislative changes coming your way that you will need to be prepared for
Karen Thomson MSc FCIPP FHEA – Director – Armstrong Watson Payroll Services
- 13:00 – 13:30 Questions
- 13.30 Close
Paul Dickson –Managing Partner Armstrong Watson

*Programme and speakers subject to change without notice