The gold bars were in a separate combination locked vault. Inside the vault was a locked cabinet that held 53 gold bars on shelf five, with 13 bars on shelf six. Canvas bags were beneath the stacked bars. All 66 bars were carefully removed and placed on 2 wooden carts that were covered with canvas bags to protect them.

The gold and silver bars were photographed and inspected with the marked data compared to the Brinks Canada Ltd – Galmarley Ltd t/a BullionVault lists dated 8th November 2021.

INSPECTION

On arrival at the Brinks vault, permission was given to inspect and photograph the silver bars in a designated inspection area. The pallets had been un-stacked into roughly four rows as space allowed, for access; the steel strapping was removed allowing access to all bars. The bars were un-stacked to allow visual identification of each bar before being re-stacked. Some of the bars were stamped on the end of the bar. The pallets labelled 110119-01, -02, and -03 had bar code stickers affixed on the end of the bars. Each bar was inspected, and the details were compared to the Brinks Canada Ltd – Galmarley Ltd t/a BullionVault list dated 8th November 2021. Upon completion of the audit, each pallet was to be re-strapped with two steel straps and re-stacked.

Each silver bar was stamped with a bar number, gross weight, fineness number and Johnson Matthey Canada logo, Asahi Refinery Canada (ARC), CCRL or RCMI logo. Also stamped on the bar, was the year the bar was cast. The bars on each pallet were cast in the same year. Each bar number, weight and fineness number were recorded and compared to the advised list. The total quantity of bars was found to be correct and agreed with the Brinks Canada Ltd – Galmarley Ltd t/a BullionVault Inventory list of 08 November 2021.

Each gold bar had the bar number, 4-digit fineness number, Johnson Matthey, Asahi Refinery or RCMI logo, a small JM Canada Assay Logo and the year it was cast. Bars 480 and 487 had Montreal East Canada, CCR 2017, the fineness engraved, and gross weight written in black marker. Each bar number and fineness number were recorded and compared to the advised list. The total quantity of bars was found to be correct and agreed with the Brinks Canada Ltd – Galmarley Ltd t/a BullionVault list of 8th November 2021.
