What is PR?

Public Relations is about reputation - the result of what you do, what you say and what others say about you.

Public Relations is the discipline which looks after reputation, with the aim of earning understanding and support and influencing opinion and behaviour.

It is the planned and sustained effort to establish and maintain goodwill and mutual understanding between an organisation and its publics.”

*Definition of PR provided by the Chartered Institute of Public Relations

What is the difference between PR and marketing?

Why do lawyers need PR?

What does a good PR strategy look like?

Adopting a “strategy-first”
approach...

And why that’s important.

Tactics to consider...

LexisNexis Legal Awards 2022

“Thank you very much for the opportunity to meet with Chambers this morning. It was really useful to hear what they had to say.”

“Excellent guests - really useful to get a real insight into the subject matter.”

Linking PR to growth.

Finding a great PR partner for your law firm.

Key Takeaways

- Align your strategies
- Know your audiences
- Go where they are
- Let the strategy lead the tactics
- Align your tactics to each other and your strategy
- Define and measure success
- Try different things
- Get people offline as soon as possible

Questions?

Say hello

Our best work always starts with a conversation. About you, about your firm, your work and perhaps most importantly, what you are trying to achieve.

I look forward to talking to you!
